Dear Kyle,

I am writing to thank you and the staff at Traceability Solutions for your work during our recent research trip to Johannesburg accompanying representatives of the government of the Republic of South Sudan. The trip provided those who attended with valuable exposure to weapons marking and management processes. This experience will undoubtedly be of considerable importance in aiding the development of similar processes in South Sudan. We particularly appreciate your personal commitment to the development of a custom-designed system appropriate to South Sudan. We look forward to working further with you and your staff on this important issue.

Best regards,
